MHE92267 – Huntley Mirror

British explorers for years have inspired everything from furniture to accessories. Their adventures often referred to as campaigns has created a design sensation. A mirror was often part of these travels and featured a leather strap that could be used to hang it from the tent or a tree. Hence the inspiration for our Huntley Mirror. A round stainless steel frame finished in brushed black features a leather strap. A matching round hanging knob affixes to the wall.
