MHE92345 – Cool Run Hand Painted Original Art- Left

While running along the Hudson River one cold rainy winter morning, I started to notice the clouds increasing and the rain turning into sleet. It was as if a grayish hazy blanket was being tucked around the city. We decided to take this work and create a triptych out of it for added interest either as the complete three pieces together or hung individually. Thick layers of paint are hand applied to create movement and texture. Because it is hand painted, no two pieces of art will be exactly the same. The gallery wrapped canvas is set into a floating gold leaf wood frame. Hardware is attached so the back of the art so that it is ready to hang right out of the box.
